We will vote on June and September Minutes in October.

Naomi Pusch gave the Treasurer's Report that is attached hereto.

Rachel Lee presented the idea of SCA writing a quality of life letter in response to a complaint from a Sabin resident regarding noise problems in the neighborhood. Josh Curtis moved that SCA send a letter to City Commissioners expressing our desire for more resources allotted to livability issues in neighborhoods. Cara Frey seconded the motion. The Board unanimously affirmed the motion.

Discussion regarding the establishment of a Sustainability Committee. Josh Curtis moved that we create a Sustainability Committee and publicize its existence. Michelle Ganow Jones seconded the motion. The Board unanimously affirmed the motion.

Fiscal sponsorship by NECN recap discussion.

Discussed pros and cons that had been presented at the Board retreat.

Josh Curtis moved that SCA seek acceptance of fiscal sponsorship from NECN under the condition that Green Streets Project is excluded from the 5% fee. Naomi Pusch seconded. Motion approved unanimously.

Meeting adjourned at 7:55 p.m.
